

Andiamo!

Dining at Andiamo is a simple experience. Our menu is inspired by Italian cuisine and, as food is born of the region, we stay true to our relationship with local growers. For that reason, we meld indigenous foods whenever possible with key Italian imports. We crave these earthy, effortless flavors long after the meal has ended. Our wine list appeals to a broad spectrum in terms of taste and price point and introduces the element of surprise with well-known producers and little known finds. A widely-acclaimed and local favorite, Andiamo! is a Santa Fe must!
